

The Prayagraj Maha Kumbh Mela 2025 drew an unprecedented 660 million pilgrims to the Triveni Sangam, the sacred confluence of the Ganges, Yamuna, and mythical Saraswati rivers. Marking a rare 144-year planetary alignment, this monumental gathering seamlessly fused ancient ascetic traditions with modern AI crowd control. Millions of devotees and ascetic sadhus bathed in the freezing waters, creating history's largest peaceful human congregation in pursuit of moksha.
