Lomography Lady Grey 400

From My glASSHOLEs #7

..Lomo Golden Rule #10:
"Don't worry about any rules"

@tony.haq

Without knowing Lomography ideology,
I might never letting go of my overthinking on shooting any cameras

It's about having fun, experimental, shooting on cheap stuff, not caring for not having expensive gears, etc..

This burner 35mm f11 looks like crap,
the light leaks doesn't help either

But who cares..

Lomography does help me with overcoming my anxiety of picking up any cameras

It's 10 Golden Rules has some absurd and weird advice but the outcome could be magical
