

This past Christmas, my dear husband bought me a rose-of-the-month club from an Ecuadorian rose farm, so each month I get two dozen gorgeous blossoms delivered to the door.

We miss the beautiful country, its kind people, and, of course, las rosas.

We visited there in 2022 and saw their roses firsthand; they were truly stunning.

Recuerda el amor, recuerda Ecuador.

Rosas ecuatorianas

Ecuador is one of the major exporters of roses, some of the most beautiful in the world.
